

Fairy Garden Tales

Parlin Gressitt

if you like spend - ing time with fair - ies I

4 have found a place for you wel - come to this fair -

8 y gar - den I hope you en - joy the view

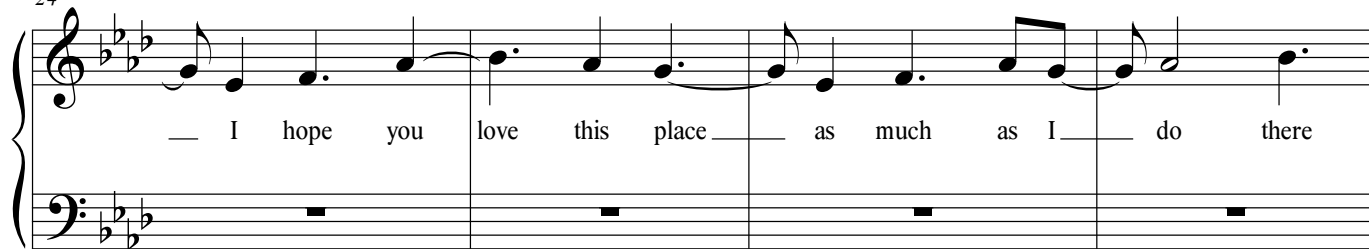

12 fair - y gar - dens are so much fun with lit - tle fair - y vil -

16 - lag - es and lights we have mu - sic too and food for you

20 there are lots of fair - ies here and some an - i - mals too

Fairy Garden Tales

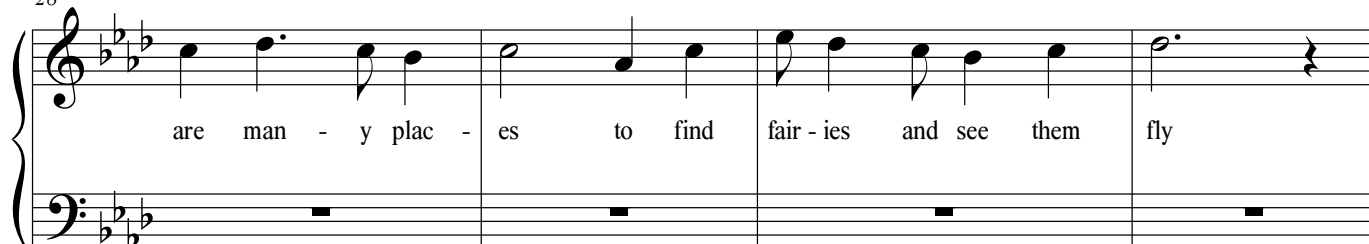

24

— I hope you love this place — as much as I — do there

The musical notation for measures 24-27 is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "— I hope you love this place — as much as I — do there".

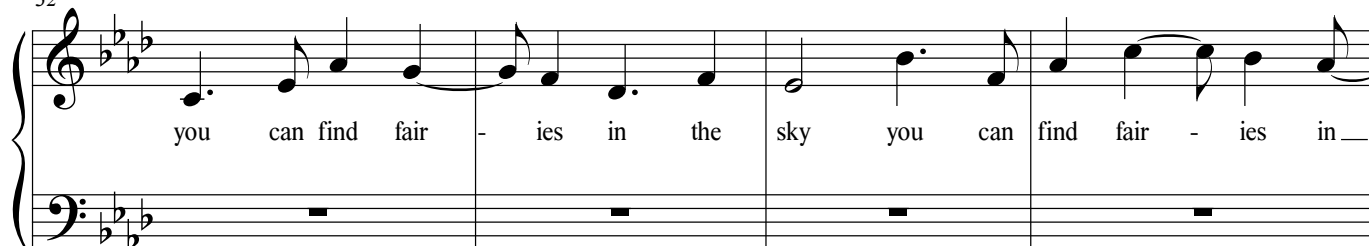

28

are man - y plac - es to find fair - ies and see them fly

The musical notation for measures 28-31 is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "are man - y plac - es to find fair - ies and see them fly".

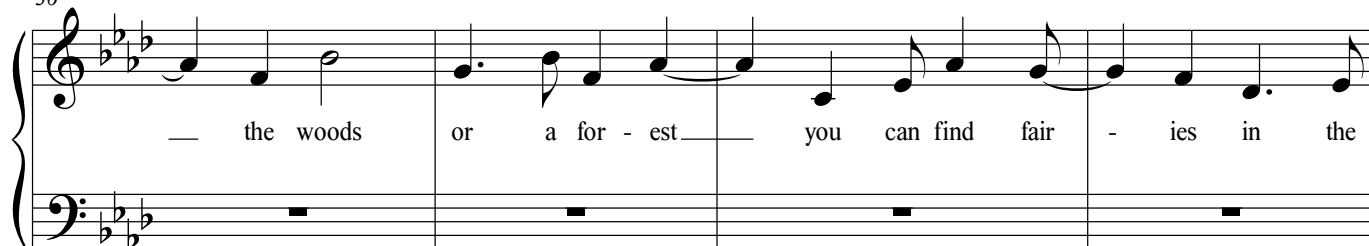

32

you can find fair - ies in the sky you can find fair - ies in —

The musical notation for measures 32-35 is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "you can find fair - ies in the sky you can find fair - ies in —".

36

— the woods or a for - est — you can find fair - ies in the

The musical notation for measures 36-39 is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "— the woods or a for - est — you can find fair - ies in the".

40

mead - ow you can ev - en find fair - ies in your house or you —

The musical notation for measures 40-43 is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "mead - ow you can ev - en find fair - ies in your house or you —".

44

— can stay here and find fair - ies in this love - ly gar - den

The musical notation for measures 44-47 is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "— can stay here and find fair - ies in this love - ly gar - den".